

TRENT VALLEY ARCHIVES HOSTS A GENEALOGICAL FAIR

Location: Wayside Academy, 575 Centre Line,
Peterborough, Ontario

Agenda April 5, 2008:

9am - Registration and welcome from Wally Macht (TVA President)

9:30-10:30am - Workshop – Military Records – 19th Century, including the Loyalists (Dennis Carter-Edwards, Research Historian with Parks Canada
- World War II military records , (Steve Guthrie, Journalist & Historian)

10:30-11am - coffee break and Marketplace

11:00-12pm - Workshop - Document Conservation (Basia Baklinski, Conservator for Lang Pioneer Village and Trent Valley Archives and owner of The Conservation Clinic

12:00-1:30pm - Lunch and Archives visit

1:30-2:30 - Workshop – Land Record Research (Gina Martin, Professional Title Searcher)

2:30-4pm - Workshop – “Which Genealogy Software is Best for You” (Rick Roberts, co-founder of Global Genealogy, produces ‘The Global Gazette’ and frequent speaker at genealogical conferences across Canada and the United States

4pm - Wrap-up of day, with an opportunity to do personal research at Trent Valley Archives or find out more about Family Tree Maker from Rick Roberts

REGISTRATION FORM:

Name: _____

Address: _____

_____

Telephone: _____

E-mail: _____

COST: Registration Fee: $40.00      Box Lunch: $5.00

If you wish to book a table to sell books and other materials, the cost will be $10

Please send a cheque or money order to register to:

Trent Valley Archives, 567 Carnegie Avenue, Peterborough, K9L 1N1